

MEDIA ADVISORY

OFFICE OF COUNTY MAYOR GLENN JACOBS

400 Main Street, Suite 615, Knoxville, TN 37902

Storm Drain Style-Off winners to be announced Nov. 16

WHEN: Friday, Nov. 16 from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

WHERE: Fountain City Library, 5300 Stanton Road, Knoxville, TN 37918

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (Nov. 13, 2018) – Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs will announce the winners of the 2018 Storm Drain Style-Off on Friday, Nov. 16 at 4 p.m. at the Fountain City Branch Library, 5300 Stanton Road. Light refreshments will be served.

Local artists volunteered their time and talent to paint small murals on storm drains at libraries around Knox County that depict a visual and written message about the connection of storm drains to streams. Once the eight selected artists completed each unique painting, the community was encouraged to vote for their favorite. During the event, the top three winners will be recognized and receive prizes.

The Storm Drain Style-Off is a public education project to inform the community of the connection storm drains have to our streams. Only rain should go down the drain. All other items, such as trash, used oil and pet waste, end up in our streams.

The Storm Drain Style-Off was made possible through the generous donation of paint from Graning Paint Co. Corporate sponsorship for the program was provided by GEOServices, LLC, Advanced Drainage Systems and EnSafe. The Water Quality Forum, a coalition working to keep East TN waters clean, also sponsored the Style-Off. The project is brought to citizens of Knox County by the Stormwater Management and Public Library Departments.

For more information contact:

Stephanie Carlson https://www.knoxcounty.org/stormwater/strong_streams_art.php
865-215-5463 office
865-254-5544 cell

###