Mayor Jacobs Talks About Elections, Schools, Jobs and More

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will post about 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about the local election, the new Lonsdale Elementary School, and job openings in the county's Engineering and Public Works Department.

He also discusses the new monument for Vietnam veterans at World's Fair Park and signing the papers to close the sale of the downtown historic A.J. Building.

Additionally, Mayor Jacobs talked new federal funding for the Knox County Health Department, which will use the money to promote student health and wellness through the department's Nutrition Education Activity Training (NEAT) program. The program works with students during afterschool time to building skills that lead to making healthier food choices.

As a reminder, School Mania IV starts at 3 p.m. Mayor Jacobs will be available for interviews beginning at 2 p.m. near the Jacob Building at Chilhowee Park.
