Knox County Regional Forensic Center Seeking Help to ID Deceased Man

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— The Knox County Regional Forensic Center is requesting public assistance to help identify a man whose body was found near a homeless camp by the railroad tracks at Scottish Pike River Park in Knoxville.

The man, dubbed “Railroad Nick” by the homeless community, is believed to be white, between 60 to 70 years of age, and about five feet and 10 inches tall. His body was discovered on June 16, 2020, wearing a black jacket, brown pants, white socks, and a black string necklace that included a black pendant.

Anyone with information about the man’s identity is asked to call the Center’s medicolegal death investigator line at 865-215-8010, or Lt. Morrow with the Knoxville Police Department at 865-215-7298.
