Mayor Jacobs Talks About Finance Department, Pedestrian Bridge, and More

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will post about 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about the county's excellent finance department, a pedestrian bridge for the Gibbs community, and a number of events he attended.

"I am thrilled to report that Knox County has received a $1.9 million state grant to help build a pedestrian bridge at Gibbs High School," Mayor Jacobs says. "The bridge will not only improve pedestrian safety, as we announced last November, the bridge will be dedicated to Army Staff Sergeant Ryan Knauss, one of the 13 service members killed during the withdrawal from Afghanistan and a graduate of Gibbs High School."
