Mayor Jacobs to Recognize Championship Athletic Teams at Night of Champions

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—Members and coaches from championship teams across the county will gather at 6 p.m. on Friday, June 9 at the Women’s Basketball Hall of Fame to celebrate with Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs.

“When Austin-East won their first state soccer championship, my office threw them a pizza party,” said Mayor Jacobs. “It was so much fun, we decided to bring all the championship sports teams together to celebrate.”

This year, the following teams will be recognized at the event:

- Bearden High School Girls’ Soccer
- Catholic High School Boys’ Baseball
- Christian Academy of Knoxville Track & Field and Boys’ Golf
- Farragut High School Boys’ Baseball and Cross Country
- Fulton High School Boys’ Basketball
- Halls High School Wrestling
- Knoxville Catholic Girls’ Basketball and Tennis
- Knoxville Catholic Boys’ Baseball
- West High School Football

The event is by invitation only, but the media is welcome to attend.
