Mayor Jacobs Talks About New Stadium, ‘Hero Cards,’ and More County Offices Closed Monday

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will be posted around 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs discusses the new downtown multi-use stadium, The Grateful Nation Project, and the county’s new mental health court.

“The stadium, and the private development that will be constructed along with it, is going to be transformation for east Knoxville,” Mayor Jacobs said after local leaders broke ground on the project. “As another place for families to spend time, it will also enhance our quality of life, and help with economic development by providing folks of all ages with more stuff to do here.”

Please note, Knox County government offices—including convenience centers, senior centers, Veterans Services, libraries, and the Health Department—will be closed on Monday, June 19, 2023, in observance of Juneteenth. All offices will resume normal business operations on Tuesday, June 20, 2023.
