Mayor Jacobs Talks About School Supplies, Substance Misuse, and UFOs

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will be posted around 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about School Mania V and the start of the State's Tax Free Weekend and shares his thoughts on the Health Department's Drug-Related Death Report.

He also talks about government transparency and Congressman Tim Burchett's work on the House Oversight Subcommittee on National Security, the Border, and Foreign Affairs to hear testimony relating to UFOs.

Next week, the Eat & Greet will be at 11 a.m. at Emma's Southern Kitchen on Sutherland Avenue.
