Mayor Jacobs Talks About ORNL, Read City, School Mania, and More

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will be posted around noon today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about summer reading, the new director of Oak Ridge National Laboratory, and the Clarence Brown Film Festival.

Mayor Jacobs also provided an update on last week's fifth annual School Mania event, noting that this was the first year his team ran out of all 2,500 bags of school supplies, which were distributed to Knox County families. Next year, he says, the event will be even bigger and aim to distribute at least 3,000 bags.
