Mayor Jacobs Talks About Tennessee Smokies baseball, Breast Cancer Awareness Month and a Number of Events He Attended

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—During his Weekly Update, which will post around 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about a number of events he attended, congratulates the Tennessee Smokies baseball team and reminds folks that Breast Cancer Awareness Month starts Sunday.

The Tennessee Smokies took home their first Southern League title since 2004 on Tuesday, sweeping the Blue Wahoos in the championship series. The Smokies dominated the playoffs, not dropping a single game.

October is breast cancer awareness month. The disease affects one in eight women in the United States every year, and 2.3 million women worldwide. Breast Cancer Awareness Month aims to promote screening and prevention of the disease as well as supporting those diagnosed with breast cancer.

Mayor Jacobs also talks about UT football, The Friends of the Library's Fall Used Booksale, the Legacy Parks annual luncheon, and more.
