Knox County to Host Final Sunset Cinema of the Year

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—The Knox County Parks and Recreation Department will host its end of the year Sunset Cinema program on Oct. 13 at Corryton Park with a Halloween-themed double feature.

The event kicks off at 7:30 p.m. with free activities and games. Movies begin at dusk with Hotel Transylvania first and Friday the 13th immediately after. The event also will feature food trucks, vendors, and costume contests for adults and youth.

This event is free and open to the public. Please note that no alcoholic beverages are allowed in the park.

Check out the Knox County Parks and Recreation Facebook page for event updates and details.
